The information herein is not intended or implied to be a guarantee of a successful business partnership or joint venture.

The programs, guides, templates and workbooks of Business Partner Pro (bizpartnerpro) are based on the premise that business is about relationships and in order to build and maintain successful business relationships, the people involved need to choose each other well, communicate honestly and openly, with respect. Trust needs to be present and when it isn't, is usually a sign to shake hands and walk away.

The mission of Business Partner Pro is to help reverse the statistics that 70% of partnerships and JVs fail, by emphasizing communication, to guide the partners to discuss the important issues and record them in the appropriate agreement template.

As stipulated by law, we cannot and do not make any guarantees about your ability to have the results in your business, joint venture, or partnership that you desire. Your results in life are up to you (partners) and we can't predict what you will or won't do with the information provided. Our tools represent our desire to help by giving great content, tools, guidance, and strategies that move you forward.
